1. Forty-two leaders and 98 members of the Greek Communist Party signed a statement renouncing the Party while in exile. A top leader of the Party believes that those who signed this renunciation should be discharged, but those who signed a statement renouncing the Party during the Metaxas regime should be restored to good standing.
2. It was later decided to reinstate 340 persons who renounced the Party during the Metaxas regime.
3. Paul Pavlovic is reported to have recommended that the advice of Markos Vafiades be followed in discontinuing the policy of having Party members answer the draft call. Vafiades anticipates that those members called up for the draft will shortly be interned by the Government because of security reasons, since the present appeasement policy will probably be abandoned.
4. The Greek Communists have been ordered to end all collaboration with Right-wing Socialist groups, pursuant to decisions made at the Warsaw Communist conference.
5. The Vlahov-Zachariades Agreement has been cancelled following the announcement of the establishment of the new Cominform.
6. The Cominform has ordered the Bulgarian General Staff to transport the 14th, 16th, 23rd and 35th Soviet Divisions to points near the Greek border, via Elkhovo, Sofia and Plovdiv.
7. It was reported that Luigi Longo, the former chief of the Garibaldi Brigade during the Spanish Civil War, will lead volunteer brigades in Bulgaria to be known as the "Organization for Democratic Liberation".
8. Eighty-five officers trained in Yugoslavia have been ordered by the Cominform to serve with volunteer units of the Andartes. A total of 230 officers have been commissioned from a Yugoslav officer school.
